A WORD ABOUT CATARRH.

"It is the muscous membrane, that wonderful semifiuld envelope surrounding the delicate tissues of the air and food passages, that Catarrh makes its stronghold. Once established, it eats into the very vitals, and renders life but a long-drawn breath of misery and disease, dulling the sense of hearing, wammeling the power of speech, destroying the faculty of smell, tainting the breath, and killing the rensed pleasures of tasts. Insidiously, by creeping on from a simple cold in the head, it assaults the membranous lining and envelopes the bones, eating through the delicate coats and causing inflammation, sloughing and death. Nothing short of total eradication will secure health to the pastent, and all alleviatives are simply procrastinated sufferings, leading to a fatal termination. SANPORD'S RADICAL CURB, by Inhalation and by Internal administration, has never failed; even when the disease has made frightful inroads on delicate constitutions, hearing, smell and taste have been recovered, and the disease thoroughly driven out."

LABOR'S GREAT BATTLE.

To-Day's Developments in the Eight-Hour Movement.

Sixty-Five Thousand Men On Strike in Chicago.

try the eight-hour plan on a basis of ten hours' pay for eight hours' work, and some of the pork packing companies have acceded to the men on the basis of nine hours' pay for eight hours' work. A dispatch from Chicago sequent events would explain matters.

In New York it is estimated that 7,500 men will uit work on the eight-hour demand, 3,500 of body to the shops. If their demand is agreed to they will go to work; if not, they will strike. It is also expected that the woodutters will strike. The building trades are tuation is reflected in the reports which fol in this city nearly 7,500 men will go on a strike that trade. The Executive Committee made ing on of the strike. The employes of eac march in bodies to the shops so as to reach them at 8 o'clock. If they are ad-mitted they will go to their respective tasks and work will go on as usual. In case, lowever, the employer declines to have the days begin at that hour, the men are to go back to their headquarters, leave the matter in the hands of the executive committee, and wait until they are told to go back to work Just what shops will refuse to accede to the demands are not known at present, but it is feard that the majority of them will take this course. The manufacturers have decided not to close up their factories, but continue work with such men as will remain faithful to them or those they can get to take the place of the strikers. This will put a stoppage of work on the unions.

Stoppage of work on the unions.

One of the officers of the Central Labor Union said yesterday: "We think that our demands are just and reasonable and we shall certainly insist upon them. We are well prepared financially to stand a long fight, but hope that a settlement will be reached in a short time."

certainly insist upon them. We are well prepared financially to stand a long fight, but hope that a settlement will be reached in a short time."

The puritant.

The next most important strike will be that of the furriers. There are fifty-four manufacturers in the city and they cimploy nearly 1,000 men and women. They have all refused to accede to the eight-hour demand, and the union almost unanimously decided to go on a strike this morning. They will establish headquarters at Becthoven Hail on Fifth street. They also claim to have ample funds to stand a long fight.

It is hard to say just how far the touble will extend among the woodworkers and furniture-makers, and in just what shops there will be a necessity for a strike or how many men will be affected it is almost impossible to estimate as yet. A careful canvass of all the snops in the trade has been made and it is said that a majority of them have acceded to the demands. Many of the others are 'noncommittal and declined to give a positive answer. They will be visited again this morning, and in case they refuse to grant the demand strikes will be at once ordered. It is possible that from 1,000 to 1,500 men may go out in these trades, but the number may be much less than these figures.

The marble-cutters who work have decided to strike against all employers who decline to grant them nine hours a day and the abolition of piece work. The estimated number of men who will go out on a strike in this trade is about 500.

There will be no trouble in the building trades, A meeting of the walking delegates of the various unions was beld on Seurray night, and it was unanimously resolved that they would not make any further demand on their employers, so far as pay or hours are concerned. They are satisfied with the arrangements for engaging counsel for the arran movement, long strikes are threatened if the present attitude of the employers is maintained. The movement has not yet been attended by any violence, though in some quarters the Socialistic element has caused seeming bickering and disquietude. This is particularly true of the lumber rection and North Side furniture district. Previous to Saturday 1,000 brewers, as many bakers, 800 furniture-workers, 1,600 clothing-cutters and 100 tack-pointers had secured a reduction of the working hours. According to the reports received up to midnight by Mr. George A. Schilling, Chairman of the Eighthour Committee, the demands of the following have been satisfied: 800 tobacco-handlers, 700 street car employes, all the members of the Uigarmakers' Union, 300 beer barrel makers, $500 try goods and notion store employes, $500 packers, and a large number of workmen employed in small industries. Besides, the following unions have adopted the eight-hour standard:

Brickisyers', $500 emasons', Hodearriers', Plasterers and Lathers'.

THE OTHER TRADES.

Of the thirty-seven establishments wherein

Plasterers and Lathers'.

Of the thirty-seven establishments wherein iron molders are employed, twenty-three shops have won, five of the firms are resisting the movement and the remainder are negotiating. The machinists' and blacksmiths' assembly, which is striking for eight hours with the ten-hour wages scale, reports general success. The uphoisterers are being resisted in nearly every instance. Thirty-three hundred brickmakers are striking for eight hours' work at ten hours' pay.

About one-half of the 600 butchers in theelty have secured a reduction from sixteen to ben hours. The shoemakers' assembly has modified its demand to eight hours' pay for eight hours' work, and expects to gain this concession.

THE LUMBER MEN.

Up to 9:50 no trouble has been reported in considerable excitement was caused at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon in the vicinity of Wabash avenue and River street by the arrival of a crowd of two hundred or three hundred strikers. They announced their intention of breaking into the tin can manufactory of Noton Bros. They tried to force in. The doors were barred, however, and the police telephoned for a detail, and a detail from the Central Station marched on in double quick time. On the appearance of the officers the crowd dispersed and quiet was restored.

THE FREIGHT-HANDLERS.

An Aggressive Policy Determined Upon-

CHICAGO, May 3.—The freight-handlers to meeting was a prolonged and noisy one, and those present evinced great enthusiasm. The on of fighting back at the railroad manussed at length and an aggressive policy was decided on, especially with reference to the Burlington road, which, it is alleged, pays was decided on, especially with reference to the Burlington road, which, it is alleged, pays its men less than some of the other roads. The men had been assured of sympathy from various labor organizations, and they felt strong enough to make a fight and to win. One of the best modes suggested of fighting the roads and making them yield to the demands of strikers, was to secure the co-operation of the switchmen and get them to refuse to handle freight loaded by men who are imported to take the places of the strikers. This suggestion was favorably received, and a committee was appointed to wait upon the switchmen and see if they would thus aid the freight handlers in their struggle for what they consider justice. What the report of that committee was could not be learned. The report received at a late hour that the Milwaukee & St. Paul Company was sending 400 men into the city to take the places of the striking freight-handlers created no little uneasiness. The strikers decided to resist any attempt of the imported men to handle freight. The switchmen's meeting lasted from So'clock until 12. It was a stormy session and many members left the meeting before it was through. The proposition of the freight-handlers was discussed, but it did not meet with general favor. Some of the men thought if unwise and others favored any method that would aid the laborers as against the capitalists. After the meeting Vice-Grand Master Drury was asked if the switchmen would aid the strikers. He said: "I can't answer you directly, but you know that the switchmen are always in sympathy with their fellow-laborers."

Further than this, Mr. Drury refused to say anything, but intimated that events would tell the story.

The procession of freight-handlers, after passing the Alton and Burlington yards, went south on Canal street to Eighteenth street and proceeded east to Michigan avenue and then headed north. It was reported to the police headquarters that an atlate on the Illinois Central yards was contemplated, and a squad of fifty police was at once sent from the Central Police Station to the seems. The marchers, however, turned to the left and crossed Rush street bridge and then proceeded west toward the Morthwestern and St. Paul yards. No overtable and the proceeding to the south division of the city, visited the yards of the Milwanke & St. Paul Depot and induced a portion of a new squad of men brought in by the railroad company from outside the city to join them. The crowd, as it entered the St. Paul, numbered from 3,000 to 5,000, and was somewhat demonstrative. Two squads of police arrived on the scene and drawing clubs effectually scattered the drowd, allowing the new men to proceed with their work. It was the most exciting event of the day, but the strikers did not attempt to scriously oppose the police. There was considerable intimidation—exercised in the lumber district, and several large crowds march through the yards to prevent work. All the railroads have their freight-houses open, but are sanshed to transact only a limited amount of business.

JUDGEGGESHAM GOES FOR GOULD.

Deputy Marshal Ballard, accompanied by Superintendent Wade and Mr. Sleper, Attorney for the Wabash road, made a formal application to Judge Gresham of the United States Circuit Court this afternoon for the protection of the Federal Court against trespassers. Judge Gresham, after listening to Mr. Sleeper, said: "Tendays ago you made a statement to the effect that this court had no jurisdiction over the affairs of the Wabash Road. If I take this step, I will have to follow it up with further measures for the protection of the road. I do not wish to do this until I am fully assured that I have jurisdiction. Jay Gould should not deny the jurisdiction. Jay Gould should not deny the jurisdiction of this court and afterward appeal to if for protection. At the same time, I do not wish to refuse protection to any corporations simply because of the inconsistent statements of its attorneys."

Mr. Sleeper said he would examine the records and obtain facts to show Judge Gresham's Jurisdiction.

The Inauguration of the Eight-Hour Move ment in Cincinnati,

CINCINNATI, May 3 .- There is not much vigor in the attempt to inaugurate a general strike here. About 800 men employed as freighthandlers at the Cincinnati, Hamilton handlers at the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton, the Cincinnati, Indianapolis, St. Louis & Chicago and the Little Miami roads, are idle because of a demand for an advance of 30 cents a day. At other roads the men are at work. The railroad managers hold a meeting this afternoon to agree on a line of action. The employes of another furniture factory came out to-day. Workers in furniture and carriage factories are about the most uneasy of any class in the were made, and the atternoon passed with no other business. A committee had been proviously appointed to wait on the brewers and make a demand for the eighthour system. All of the brewers north of Cass avenue were visited before 2 p. m. by the committee and the demand made upon the proprietors. In all cases they were asked to leave the matter until the Brewers' Association could consider it at their next meeting, which takes place on Wednesday evening. This request was granted by the committee who called on the Bremen, Hyde Park, Liberty, Stiefel's, and Lafayette Breweries. Up to 3 o'clock p. m. the committee had not called at any of the brewgies south of Cass avenue. A call at Winklemeyer's, Grone's, Schnsider's, Wainwright's, the Green Tree, Schilling & Schnsider's, Greesidieck's, Lemp's, Anthony & Kuhn and Anheuser-Busch failed to reveal any trouble. Mr. Winklemeyer said that no trouble was anticipated. The brewers here were receiving 35 more per month than they were in Milwan kee, and were rasher satisfied with their treatment. Besides they were rarber deliberate, and as the proprietors were more disposed to treat the men iairly there was but little probability of a strike.

Pullis Bros. and the MeMurray-Judge Company, all manufacturers of architectural iron work. The demand that the men are striking to enforce is for the eight-hour system and to make the shops pay by the day instead of by the piece.

At Christopher & Simpson's Foundry forty men are on the strike. These are all molders, The pattern makers and finishers are still at work.

At Scherpe & Koken's sixty men are out. All hands joined the movement at this piace. At Pullis Bros. about fifty men struck this morning, leaving some haif dozen at work. Mr. Toun Pullis said that no demand had been made upon the firm. The men had simply quit work. If they had a grievance it had not been stated.

At the McMurray-Judge Company seventy men had joined the movement. This number included all the molders and handlers. Mr. Judge said that the committee had made a demand in writing for the eight-hour system. As a majority of the shops paid by the piece the new system could very easily be adopted. The men however, subsequently asked that the remuneration be by the day and their paper had been returned to them to have the second part of the demand incorporated. It was impossible for him to say how they would be an awared. He had asked the other foundry proprietors interested to meet him and their action would be a concerted one. Messrs. Jerry Galvin and Pete Fisher of the Molders' Committee said that some hands had worked by the piece but the majority were paid by the day, which was of ten hours. The proprietors had showed a disposition to meet their demand for the eight-hour system by paying them by the piece. The men objected to this and their fight would be to make all the foundries day shops.

of 500 made up of about two-thirds women and girls and the rest men, quit work this morning on the refusal of the Superintendent to accede to a demand for increased pay and fewer hours per day. The employes claim that about two years ago their pay was reducedfirem $1.50 for laborers and $3 week for picker-feeders, to $8 a week for laborers and $7.50 for feeders.

The women employed at the factory have been receiving from $4.50 to $6 a week. Last Wednesday the employes demanded a return to the old rate of wages and a reduction in the hours of work. Superintendent Charles O'Nelli asked for time to consider the demand, and requested the employes to continue work until Saturday evening to which they agreed. A meeting was held Saturday night at which it was determined to insist on the demand for the increase of wages and for a reduction of hours to ten a day. The employes say they are compelled to work now eleven hours and a haif, from 6 a. m. to 6 p. m., with half an hour for dinner. This morning the smployes went to the factory to hear the superintendent's decision, and were told that the factory would elose until they were ready to come back to work at the usual rate of wages and time. The employes met again this morning at 10 o'clock and formulated the demands stated, appointing a cummittee consisting of Frank Strass, John Pfaff, Joseph Boese, Jr., Henry Engelke and John Kilma, to take care of the strike.

The employes are not members of the Knights of Labor and do not belong to any union, but expect to form one.

Four agitators were arrested for inciting riot and are now in jail.

The men average also $2.25 per day and work about eight and a half hours or less. If there is any dissatisfaction among the hands at this landing it failed to assert itself this morning.

A Big Lock-Out.

Washington, D. C., May 3.—A very general lock-out began here to-day against the eighthour demands of the unions of the bricklayers, bers, painters, plumbers and carpenters, numbering in the aggregate over 2,000 men. The demands have been complied with in some instances and negotiations looking to the adjustments of the difficulty are under way in several others. There has been no disturbance of the peace and none is threatened in any quarter.

Mob Methods.

MILWAUKEE, May 3.—The report has just been received from the West Milwaukee rallway shops that a body of 1,500 strikers visited there this afternoon, swarmed into the different shops and forced the 2,000 men employed there to abandon their work. Particulars cannot be obtained at this hour.

Local Notes.

The St. Louis Planing-mill, Seventh and Mul-lanphy streets, in the northern part of the city, is in full blast, and it is in no way inter-fered with by the local labor troubles. A feeling of dissatisfaction exists among the blacksmith-workers in the city as to hours and pay. While no definite action has as yet been taken towards organization, there doubtless will be before the close of the week.

LADSTONE'S STIRRING MANIFESTO TO HIS CONSTITUENTS OF MIDLOTHIAN.

Thoroughly Reviewed-A Hard Rap at the Turkish-Grecian Imbroglio-Greece's Reply to the Powers-Foreign News.

Special Cablegram to the Post-Dispatel London, May 3.—Gladstone's manifesto was kept such a secret that its appearance is a general surprise. It was printed only in special originally to Scotland. The Birmingham Post this morning contains an article estimating the number of the Liberal defection at 111, which would defeat the government by nearly 80 votes, but it admits that five-eighths of these will vote for the measure. If the Irish members are not excluded I have tabulated with great care the names of the full Liberals ion on the scheme. The number of so-called "cavemen" is in the minimum sixty-nine, and the maximum seventy-nine, ten being uncertain. Allowing five per cent off each party for absentees, and counting the Parnellites at 86, this gives the Government a majority of 3, if maximum defection holds good, and 23 if maximum does not. This is the state of things at the present moment. Now that Parliament has reassembled more will be speedily learned.

The enaployes met again this morning at 10 o'clock and formulated the demands stated, appointing a cummittee consisting of Frank Strass, John Pfaff, Joseph Boese, Jr., Henry Engelke and John Klima, to take care of the strike.

The employes are not members of the Knights of Labor and do not belong to any union, but expect to form one.

Twenty-Five Tobacco Stemmers Walk Out.
The wrappers who went out at Liggett & Meyers Saturday returned to work this morning to a man. They have been working by the day, and the demand for piece work, which was acceded to, did not suit all of them, and they were toid to lay off Saturday. All are still at work and have not yet made up their minds as to what they want. This morning about twenty-five stemmers put on their coats and walked out. An hour afterward a letter written in blood-red ink was received at the company's office demanding an increase in their pay. This letter was of very poculiar construction and must have missed one delivery. Liggett & Meyers employ 805 men, and all are at work except the stemmers.

I will say nothing of the motives which determined in its purpose and with an intelligible plan of its own. I see very little from our policy and from one another. Gentlemen, you have before you a Cabinet for menty folicy and from our policy and from one another. Gentlemen, you have before you a Cabinet for met the political arona either determined or intelligible. I will now proceed to speak of the state of things within and without Parilament, and the nature and import of the next great step to be taken for the policy and from our policy and from our policy an motives which determined us to controls the risk of such a parting. I carnestly recommend a reference to the lessons which history supplies, it is not the first time in the history of Liberalism that a section of the Liberals, under chiefs of distinction and ability, have dissented from the general view of the party to the delight and, doubtless, the advantage of the Tories. There was an illustrious secession previous to the war with Bonaparte. There was a similar secession when it was proposed to disestablish the Irish Church. But, eventually in both cases it was proved that in principle the party was right and the secession was wrong. Comparing these with the present secession it is impossible not to be struck with a vital difference. In each previous secession the dissentients these with the present secession it is impossible not to be struck with a vital difference. In each previous secession the dissentients agreed upon an active substantial policy.

It is not so now. Some are in favor of unlimited coercion, others of moderated doses, while a few oppose coercion altogether. On the other side, some oppose local government, some would give it to the counties, some to the provinces. Some again, would give an administrative center with legislative prerogatives, while some propose local government with legislative center without executive power. Some, indeed, go beyond the proposition of the Government, and actually recommend federation. Some alter the proposals which they would recommend with every new speech. All this is a proof, not of the weakness of their cause. We have the advantage of one voice. The secession, however estimable it may be otherwise, is a perfect Babel on Irish policy. It is admitted on all hands that social order is the first of all political sims. To secure this in Ireland the Liberals who are in secession effer a hundred conflicting remedies, or eise no remedies at all. These remarks are as applicable to the Tories as they are to the Liberals. The opponents to the Government measure make a remarkable omission in their speeches. In each, whether suggestive or eritical, they failed to express confidence in the permanent success of their opposition. To live from hand to mouth seems to be the height of their ambition, while they suspect what we all know, that the strile can only end in the concession of home rule. If this is so, the real question is not the triumph of Irish autonomy, but the length and character of the struggle. Therefore, we want to shorten, they to prolong the struggle. We say "Give freely." They byacts, if not words, say "Let us only give what we can no longer withhold." We say: "Give now, while the position of the Kingdom in the damand in terror, as we did to the demands of the volunteers in 182, as we did to the demands of the volunteers in 182

I can draw no vital distinction of right between the case of Ireland and the other cases, but there are many distinctions of circumstances. Turkey vs. Greece.

ATHENS, Greece, May 3.—The Government has decided that its reply already made to the ultimatum of the Powers is sufficient and the promises contained therein are all that it can make. The Ministers of the Powers are preparing to embark to-morrow on the allied fleet. Hopes are entertained in high quarters of Athens that the Government at London or St. Petersburg may find a modus vivenid under the Greek question. The resignation of the Ministry is regarded as impossible. M. Tricoupis distinctly declares that he will not accept the office.

The situation here is complicated and critical. The Government resents the interference of the Powers with its internal affairs. The foreign Ministers are gathered at the residence of Sir Horace Rumbold the British Minister, awaiting final instructions from their governments. The time given in the ultimatum of the Powers for Greece to acquiesce in their demands expires at 7 o'clock-this evening.

The result was the hall was very dimly lighted and the Credentials Committee which occupied a box on the left of the hall had difficulty in seeing their work. At 11 o'clock some delegate in desperation called the meeting to order, and Dr. J. W. Jackson, Second Vice-President of the Association, took the chair. A motion was made to adjourn to a hall in the St. Louis University, but it was suggested that the Sunday-school room of the Firs Presbyterian Church had been obtained for a meeting-place. A recess was then taken for twenty minutes after which the Association was called to order in the Sunday-school room. Having managed to climb so far up hill by this time as to secure a report from the Credentials Committee the Association adjourned to meet at 5 o'clock when it proceeded to march down hill again, electing officers on the way, and at the end adjourning sine dis.

A Meeting of the General Executive Comm

A Meeting of the General Executive Committee To-Day to Consider Their Reply to the Citizens' Committee—The Answer to Be Final and to the Satisfaction of the O'Reiliey Committee Martin Irons-Still in the Ring—Chief Arthur Here.

A general impression prevailed around the headquarters of the General Executive Committee this morning, that action of great importance would be taken by the Board within the next twenty-four hours. Inquiry by a Poss-Disparch reporter elicited the information that the action contemplated by the board was the preparation of their answer to the request of the Citizens' Committee to declare the strike off. What the nature of the reply will be cannot be ascertained authentically until after the answer of the Board is in the hands of Dr. O'Reilly, Chairman of the Citizens' Committee. The nearest approach to an intimation of 'tis complexion was obtained from Committeeman Bailey this morning, who said:

"The answer of the General Executive Committee will be final; it will dispose of the interest of the Citizens' Committee will be final; it will dispose of the interest of the Citizens' Committee of when asked if he meant to refer to committee will be final; it will dispose of the interest of the Citizens' Committee of when asked if he meant to refer to committee will be final; it will dispose of the interest of the Citizens' Committee of work of the year by the remarks that the strike off would be taken without the previous consideration of the matter by as least three members, a majority of the General Board. At present, he said there were but two members, a majority of the General Board. At present, he said there were but two members, a majority of the General Board. At present, he said there were but two members of the Board here, Mr. Barry being absent.

"Will the Board draw up its reply to the Citizens' Committee before the return of Mr. Well, I can't say," said Mr. Bailey. "The City was asked."

Citizens' Committee will be answered within

Parry?' was asked.

"Well, I can't say," said Mr. Bailey. "The Citizens' Committee will be answered within twenty-four hours."

"Will any members of the General Board not here at present arrive within that time?"

"Would prefer not to answer that question. You know that a great deal can be accomplished in twenty-four hours," and Mr. Bailey smiled significantly.

A MEETING OF THE GENERAL BOARD and the Joint Executive Committee will be held late this afternoon or this evening, at which the long expected reply to; the Citizens' Committee will be decided upon. The delay in the matter since its first announcement by the POET-DISPATCH was occasioned by the desire of the General Committee will first answersain the generalisentingent of the members of the order all over the Gould system. It is believed now that this has been satisfactorily done and nothing remains but the crowning act itself. Mr. Bailey says that the General Board in its reply will consider the wants not only of the strikers but of the entire community, inside and outside of the Ringhts of Labor.

While no positive assertion that the strike would be ended could be obtained from any of the committee, yet it is pretty well understood that to-night's action of the committee will practically end the labor troubles on the Southwest system. The statements in a morning paper to the effect that Gov. Curtin and Congrassman Stewart spent yesterday afternoon in dodging between Hurs's Hotel and Mr. Horie's realdence, presumably in an effort to settle matters, is said by Mr. Bailey to be without foundation. He says that he and Hays paid a brief visit to Mr. Ourtin's rooms at the Southern last night, but the call bore no special significance.

Speaking of the letter of the Brewers' Association to Mr. Powderly, which the latter referred to Mr. Hays, Mr. Bailey said that it would not be answered just at present. MR. GLADSTONE's condensed recapitulation of the elements which now oppose him shows that he does not despise his adversaries nor underrate their strength. "Station, title, wealth, social influence and the professionals," these are the forces temporarily arrayed in united opposition to Home Rule, while in its defense are mustered a majority of the English demooracy and the English sense of right. But there is reason for believing that the Tories will champion Home Rule whenever such a policy can be adopted to their political advantage.

United States for March showed a total volume of $118,727,985, against $104,374,611 for the corresponding month of 1885. There was a gain of $7,061,282 in imports and a gain of $2,292,042 in exports, a total increase of $9,853,824 in foreign trade. But the excess of imports over exports in March, 1886, is $8,847,819, against an excess of $1,578,079 in March,1885. For the first three-quarters of the current fiscal year the imports amount to $470,981,670, against $433,780,829 for the corresponding period of last year, and the exports to $515,492,350 this year, against $591,725,185 last year, an increase of $37,251,341 in imports and a decrease of $76,232,885 in exports, and still there is an excess of $44,510, 680 in exports over imports, which excess will probably be largely increased by the shipments of April, May and June, the three remaining months of the fiscal year.

THE fight over the District Attorneyship will serve a most useful public service in calling attention to the fact that no one except the District Attorney himself knows how much money the District Attorney draws from the office. No clear and comprehensible statement is made of the amounts received, and all inquiries about the matter are answered with a general statement that all money in excess of $8,000 a year is paid into the United States Treasury. No one need be surprised when statements are published that in the Lindsay land fraud cases the District Attorney received twelve or fourteen thousand dollars extra compensation in two years. A recent examination of the office of the Clerk of the United States Supreme Court revealed the remarkable fact that under the eyes of our most august judicial tribunal a routine official was pocketing thirty-five or forty thousand dollars a year, and such abuses are invited by any office in which the fee system flourishes in sented a petition to the House of Representatives which is evidently intended to place the Prohibitionists on the defensive and compel them to arise and explain.

The petitioners protest against "the Moedan dogma of Prohibition," and pray to be protected in their rights as Christian citizens, "believing that Christian civilization is superior to Mo hammedan civilization." They claim that Mohammed enjoined total abstinence, and that Christ opposed it. The arguments of these petitioners are not logical, but they are worthy of attention and should be promptly met and re-futed by the leaders of Prohibition. Many hesitating people who are disposed to favor Prohibition may change their minds if they fear that they are to be rallied for a cold water crusade under the canner of Islam. The Prohibitionists must promptly deny that Allah is great and that St. John is his prophet.

Socialism has been much talked of; has, in fact, existed as an element of modern intellectual activity ever since the European revolutionary movement of forty years ago. In all that time it has not produced one great man, has not attracted to itself one great mind, has not furnished the world with one greatides, has not given any help to the solution of any social or political problem. It has made no practical attempt to realize its theories, and, in fact, has not even formulated its theories, and appears to be further from accomplishing anything today than it was forty years ago. It is now a harmless delusion entertained by a few philanthropic but quarrelsome cranks, and the world has ceased to notice it, except when its quarrels attest that its feeble existence continues otherwise unnoticed.

A CHILDREN'S PARTY.

On Saturday evening Mass Verta Frankie Elliott entertained her little friends with a beautiful fancy dress party, the occasion being her birthday. The large pariors were thronged with little guests, quite a number of grown people also atlending, and the revery lasted from 7 till 11 o'clock. Mrs. Ed Samuels assisted in receiving. Among the grown persons present were Mrs. Hal Elliott, Mrs. Dr. Love, Mrs. Hotchkiss, Mrs. Mass, Mrs. Gintean, Mrs. Mosher, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Geo. S. McGrew, Mrs. Joe P. Carr, and others. The house was beautifully decorated with plants, and a great many beautiful backets of flowers and designs were presented to the little hostess by her guests as souvenirs of the occasion. A supper was served by Bears with unique favors for each little one. Miss Frankie Elliott received her guests in the court costume in which she danced the minuet, white duchess satin with long court train, over a petitoost of pale blue satin, quilted and tacked with pearls; corsage a quare and sleveless, and white powdered wig. The only regret about the concert at the tled to the name of artistic concert. It was a delightful entertainment, given by a trio of genuine artists. The triumphs were shared by planist, violinist, and vocalist. The opening number by M. Ovide Musin opening number by M. Ovide Musin assisted by Mr. Moor, Andante and Gavotte for violin and plano—gave a foretaste only of what was to come, but established M. Musin in the high favor of the sudience as once. He played not only in aimost perfect technique, but with exquisite expression and his Air de Bach on the G string, by Wilhelmi, his mazurka and his caprice de concert, ail of which were en cored, were gems. Herr Rummel, while he was not so soulful in expression, was an equal master of the plano and rendered Beethoven Sonata No. 2, Dp. 37 with splendid effect, following it with the Nocturne from the seventeenth work of Brassin Joachin Raff's "La Fileuse" and Liszt's "Rhapsodie Hongroise" artistically and with charming effect. His fingering and the strength and delicacy of his touch were wonderful. It there was any advantage in the honors of the evening it belonged to Fraulien Lilli Lehmann, which carried the audience by storm. Her volce had wonderful range and power combined with sweetness and delicacy of qualities. Its was rich and full, and yet her cadenzas were soft and fine as a thread of gold. In its quality and in her skillful management of it were revelations which captivated every hearer. Her selections were Schubert's "Gretchen Am Spinnrod." Brueil's "Meg" Polonaise from Mignon, Mendelssohn's "Fruehlingslied." a mazurka of Chopin-Viardot, all of which were charmingly rendered. For encores she gave several pretty ballads with grace and assisted by Mr. Moor, Andante and Gavotte for "Our Jonathan" was presented last night by Moore and Vivian and their company at the People's, which sustains its popularity remarkably, and succeeded in keeping the audience laughing from the beginning. The play has many peculiarities about it, but it seemed to catch the people. The comedy is of the broadest kind, and is kept up in the most serious parts of the play by Wm. Moore, in the character of Our Jonathan, a shrewd Yankee who always happens in at the right time, and by G. H. Harrison in the part of a happy go-lucky darky. Belle Vivian displays considerable cleverness as Bettina and introduces pleasing songs and dances.

Reilly & Woods' Comedy and Specialty Company, who have aiready made a favorable impression here, opened to a big house at the Standard last night and repeated their success. The olio introduces a lot of clever specialty and sketch artists who are entertaining. The cartoon drawing of Reno and Reilly are attractive and the singing of the Wood family; Hawkins and Collins in black-face specialties; Fields and Hanson in a clever musical act; Fiorence Miller, McAvoy and Rogers and Pat Reilly, the funny Irishman, create plonty of amasement, the programme ending with "Dodging the Gang," a roaring afterpiece.

The Palace Museum offers a big list of our loss less this week. A new programme, with a bright first part, an entertaining olio and a laughable sketch will be put on at the Casino to-night. The first annual exhibition of the Washington University Dramstie and Glee Clubs will be given at the Pickwick Theater, Wednesday evening next, at 8 o'clock.

A PLAN PRESENTED

gelical Alliance at Last Arrange for Down-Town Services. The special session of the Evangelical Al-liance met this morning to further consider the subject of evangelising the masses east of Twelfth street. Dr. Wilson being absent Bishop Bowman was chosen for President pro-

Dr. O. E. Peiton on May 18; Dr. J. G. Merrill on May 23; Rev. Wm. Harris on May 39; the month of June to be supplied by future appointments.

Dr. Felton of Union Methodist, as a member of the committee, said it was its thought to establish an independent church at Eleventh and Locust streets, with the Apostles' Creed as a basis.

Rev. H. G. Williams of North Presbyterian Church spoke of the success of his services at Pope's Theater last summer, as showing the people were accessible.

Rev. T. H. Haggerty of the Water Tower M. E. Church was not in favor of establishing chapels along the ievee. He favored regular preaching at Eleventh and Locust streets.

Bishop Bowman then preaching at Eleventh and Locust streets.

Bishop sold and the serve organizing to fire the city. In all cities, he presumed, the same dangerous element is growing, and he thought the country was on the brink of a volcano, He said the account might not be exactly true, since he himself was misrepresented by the Chicago pressand made to appear as being desirous of killing Jay Gould, simply because they took out of his address a playful remark and twisted it all out of shape, putting an entirely false construction upon it. The Bishop said he knew it was hard for the pastors to arouse their congregations to efforts for the evangelizing of the masses. Too many of them are busy in making money out of Sabbath desceration. Placards are hung in the street cars announcing base ball games and other sports on Sunday, and crowds are drawn out to bring money into the pockets of members of your churches, and by "your" he said he meant all Christian churches.

Dr. Brookes said the committee did the best they could at present; they did not deem it wise to go any further just now. Their intention was to make this down-town preaching simply a rallying point for the Alliance, a nucleus for something permanent.

Rev. H. S. Williams thought the hour for preaching should be changed from 4 to 8 p. m. He remembered that two years ago, in the People's Theater services, services at Eleventh and Locust streets at 4 p. m.

PUTKING ON A BOLD FRONT.

Dr. Hollifield arose to say that if the Alliance would assume a bold front and put the matter in the hearts of their congregations they would gain their support. In other cities Christian men poured out their money plentifully for such objects, and he didn't think the Christianity of St. Louis was different from that of other places.

Rev. Wm. C. Stiles of the Third Congregational Church put a damper on the enthusiasm by saying that preaching service was all right, but you can't draw people simply by announcing the service. Other means had to be used to bring people in. Sinners would go to Pope's Theater to hear preaching, but they would not go to a building generally known as church. Lots of hard work would have to be done to get any of the "masses" into the preaching service.

The amendment of Rev. H. S. Williams to change the hour to 8 p. m. was lost and then the report as presented by Dr. Brookes was adopted.

Rev. C. S. Elackwell of Central Christian adopted. S. Blackwell of Central Christian Church spoke in favor of not letting the matter drop for another month to grow cold. It is necessary, he thought, to make the business men understand that the gospel is an "antidynamite" force, a force that will prove of value to their property and show them that it is worth more to their property down town than a salvage corps.

The effect of Mr. Blackwell's remarks was that the motion to adjourn for a month was

ST. LOUIS AND ALTON MATCH THEIR STRENGTH IN THE PIT.

Ball Games Between the League Champions and the Marcons-The L. A. W. Vote-Percy Stone's Medal-The Eclipse Stakes-Base Ball Gossip and Sporting News.

Yesterday was as fine a day for chicken fighting in the open air as any one could possibly desire, and the clear weather was taken addesire, and the clear weather was taken advantage of in full by the gentlemen who patronize the pit for pastime. Shortly after the noon hour about 600 lovers of the sport were gathered at a spot a little south of Venice, Ill., where the willows on the sandy soil of the river's edge made a seclusion which was admirable for closing out any obtruders or representatives of the law, whose presence might be objectionable. All the handlers and chicken owners of any note at all both in St. Louis and East St. Louis were there and a few of "the owners of any note at all both in St. Louis and East St. Louis were there and a few of "the fancy" lent a certain amount of tone to the gathering. A lot of Alton men came down with the intention of returning loaded down with St. Louis wealth, and the suburbs and various chicken localities of the Mound City were fully represented. The crowd was a jolly one, and the fights of the go-as-you-please and bet-as-you-like kind. The chickens were

THE TWELFTH BATTLE, a black red, which has won as many as fifty fights and was born and bred at Chellenham, was pitted against another black red from Alton. The Chicago White Stockings, who now hold the championship of the League, are famous base bail players, and they have earned the reputation of being the mosthricky club on the field. Their kicking propensities and the unexpected tricks they perpetrate on the opposing team in order to save a base or a run, or to make either one or the other, are well-known, and one of the men who does the most of it is their big captain, A. C. A nson. Although a very large man, Anson is a genial and talk attive fellow and loves to play billiards and first base. He is probably the only base ball match himself for money against professional cue shovers, and to give him his due he has not done so badly with the ivories. While he likes to play billiards, his tastes are not as extravagant as most knights of the cushion and he new owns some stock in the Chicago club. His pronunciamentos on base ball men and clubs have a world of weight with the crank and his sayings are picked up and published in all the professional papers. He is a powerful man, standing six feet two inches high and weighs about 270 pounds.

SENATOR COCKRELL AND THE ST. LOUIS MARSHALSHIP.

By Telegraph to the Post-Disparch.

Washingoron, D. C., May S.—There is a story about that Senator Cockrell has become so exasperated over the hue and cry about the Marshalahip that he has decided to throw Jasper Burks overboard. There is hardly any foundation for this story. It is believed that Senator Cockrell told Burks when he was here that if he would wait for the Marshalahip he should have it. Burks is waiting patiently enough just now, and Senator Cockrell is not the man to back water. Burks will be Marshala, but it may not be for some time.

Bliss' Fees.

Bills' Fees.

By Telegraph to the Post-Disparch.

Washington, D. C., May 3.—The Washington Post this morning under the headline "He Wants the Earth," prints the following: "The accounts of District Attorney Bilss of St. Louis are being overhauled in the Treasury Department. Some time ago Mr. Bilss was directed by the Department of Justice to took into the Brazilian forgery cases, and he traveled to New Orleans in connection with the matter. When he returned he sent to the Department his account as District Attorney, which was approved, although it contained an item of Sil5 for the per diem services of a deputy who was paid by Isw a regular saisary. Then he sent in a bill charging $40 per day for his services in connection with the forgery cases, but Mr. Garland out down his pay to $25. The total of this account was $1,50 and it was paid, less the $315, for it was found that the deputy had been paid for work which the District Attorney should have personally attended to. Mr. Bilss has now sent in a disting for "expenses" in addition to his $28 per day amounting to about $800. All these claims, it should be remembered, are in addition to his regular salary and fees, which may aggregate $6,000. He has now gone to New Orleans, and another large bill is soon expected. Mr. Bilss, when selected some time ago to look into some land france in the West, made the neat little sum of $17,463.69 out of it, in addition to his attorney's fees. "Docking" Clerks.

By Telegraph to the POST-DISPATCH. WASHINGTON, D. C., May 3 .- There is some complaint among the employes of the general land office, or as it is better known, the "Gen. land office, or as it is better known, the "Gen. Sparks office," of the system of docking for absence. A clerk, it is said, who is fifteen minutes late is compelled to lose the whole day, although he or she may perform a good day's work. For being late fifteen minutes, one day of the thirty days leave granted to clerks is forfeited. If the leave has been taken the clerk is docked the day's pay. There is one peculiar feature of this system of docking at present which is causing a good deal of comment. A clerk in the department who had taken all the time allotted for vacation and suck leaves, was kept as home for two weeks by illness. When he went to draw his salary the full pay for the month was written in ink, but above it in pencil, was substituted the amount due less the time lost. Or in other words, while he signed for a full month's pay, he only received naif of it. This clerk stated to a reporter that after he had signed the pay-roll the pencil marks were crased and the balance sheet failed to show what disposition had been made of the difference. Said the clerk: "I don't mind being docked, but I would like to know what becomes of that money."

MINISTERS' MEETING. londay Gatherings of the Local Evange

The earnest meeting of the Alliance in the earlier hours of to-day seemed to have exhausted the energies of the pastors for any further business at their respective headquarters. Exception, however, should be made of the Presbyterians, who had a good attendance and considerable interest. Rev. Dr. Vander Lippe of the First German made some lengthy informal remarks regarding the spiritual condition of the terman population of the city. He was not particularly encouraged by that condition, which was quite paintul for a good Christian to consider, since infidelity and worldliness were making inroads to a considerable extent. Speaking in general terms he classified the Germans of St. Louis as one-third Protestant, one-third Catholic and one-third Infidel. Nev. Walter C. Douglass, lately arrived from the East. explained at some liength the progress of the Sat. Rev. Work among the colleges of the East. Rev. Tr. Clement C. Dickey was announced that onlight the Home Mission Committee will meetas the Glasgow Avenue Church, and Rev. George E. Martin will try to stir up the congregation.

meetas the Giasgow Avenue Church, and George E. Martin will try to stir up the congregation.

The Methodists beard the monthly church reports which were emimently encouraging all along the line. The St. Louis District of the German M. E. was announced to open tomorrow evening at Eden, Nineteenth and Warren streets, with a sormon by Rev. George Hildenstein of Mt. Vernon. The Conference will continue through Friday. The Ebenezer German Church, on Taylor and Cottage avenues, was dedicated yesterday by Bishop Bowman. At the services $1,700 was raised.

The Eaptists simply heard reports, the most interesting of which was from Delmar Avenue Church, at which last night the "Chapel Builders," a children's society, broke their barrels of coins and gathered $75 together. The church will add $300 to this which will all go to the Water Tower Mission.

The Christian pastors heard only routine reports, as did the Southern Methodists, whose ranks were depleted by the departure this morning for the general conference at Richmond of Reves. Lewis, Godbey and Bounds, and Messrs. Scrugs and J. P. Boogher.

Cattlemen Shortening the Trail-Cheap Rail

GALVESTON, Tex., May 3.—Thousands of beef cattle are being brought here by rail to be started on the trail. Heretofore most of the Southern or Western part of the State. Thi year the long drought in the Pecos Valley has forced cattlemen to send their herds as far as possible by rail before starting them on the trail. This has never been attempted before, as cattlemen thought it would cost too much. The reverse has been the case. Instead of the customary losses of cattle on the trail before they got out of the State, there is no loss at all. Leading cattlemen here, looking after the interests of their herds, express the opinion that there will be no national trail in a few years, as railroad transportation from Texas to Dakota, Monstana and Colorado will be found cheaper. There are thousands of head of cattle, and thousand of head of horses leaving here every day; the cattle for Dakota and horses for Kansas. Water and grass are exceedingly scarce in Western Texas, owing to the drought, and cattle that passed a good winter are going to market in very poor condition. The trail is now virtually open, and fully $5,000 head of cattle are going northward. as cattlemen thought it would cost too much

Probate Court Judgment of 1869 Affirmed

Judge Thayer rendered a decision to-day in the case of Catherine S. Fergusson against Isaac T. Wise. This was a suit on a judgment of the Probate Court rendered in June, 1869. The the Probate Court rendered in June, 1869. The only limitation applicable to a suit on a judgment of a court of record is the common law limitation of twenty years, after which period there is a presumption of payment. Although no execution can issue on a judgment after the lapse of ten years, yet after that and prior to the expiration of twenty years a suit may be maintained on a judgment record and the staints of limitations is not available as a defense. It has been repeatedly held that a judgment of the Propate Court is a judgment of the court of record, and such judgments are within the rule.

This is a hard case, for it compels the defendant to repay moneys which he has once paid to a person whom he supposed to be lawfully entitled to the same. After the lapse of the term at which the judgment of 1869 was rendered the Probate Court lost all control over that judgment. It could not subsequently modify or alter that judgment so as to authorize distribution of the moneys due on final settlement to be made to other parties than those named in the judgment.

A Talkative Book-Keeper.

In the case of Gamage against McNichols

Gamage worked dive month, and on one day during the sixth month was discharged. He could not be lawfully discharged after the commence-ment of the month except for adequate cause. The testimony showed that Gamage was of a social turn and occasionally did too much talking with customers and fellow-clerks. His employer, however, ignored the grievance for more than five months and at the close gave Gamage a certificate of good character, indus-try and ability.

Preserving the Unity.

He left two children. The desendant collected the rents of the homestead, but failed to account therefor to the elder sister. Judge Horner holds that it was the evident purpose of the law-makers to secure to the family after the decease of the housebolder an abiding place where the unity of the family migh be preserved until all the children had arrived at full age. The plaintiff is entitled to one-half of the rents accruing from the estate.

A Tax Judgment Set Aside.

Judge Thayer to-day rendered a decision the tax case of the State at the relation of N. C. Hudson, ex-Collector, against Schiffman. On the ground snat Mrs. Schiffman was a resident of this city when the suit was commenced and was not served and was a married woman and her husband was not joined in the suit, the judgment should be set aside.

They are to the effect that members of the International Working People's Association of New York had been for three years plotting and practicing incendiarism of the most atrocious character under the pretense of aiding the cause. No details were given, nor were names mentioned, against whom suspicion might be directed, but it was asserted that a feature of the programme consisted of insuring household property, and setting fire to it in order to collect indemnification money to be contributed to the revolutionary fund as well as to be used for private purposes. A large number of newsboys of all ages and descriptions attended the funeral services and paid their last tribute to their late triend and adviser by following the body to its last resting-place. Conspicuous among the foral offerings with which "Hiney's" coffin was covered was a beautiful design from Tony Faust. It was almost square, about 16 by 14 inches, and rested on a small stand, like an essel. Mr. Faust intended it as descriptive of the deceased's late occupation, and prominently displayed in the body of the design were copies of the Post-Distance, Globe-Democrat, Republican and other local papers. The border was of beautiful half opened buds of white roses. Reading diagonally across the ground work of newspapers were the words "Latest Edition" in purple immortelies, surrounded by white carnations. The whole effect was very beautiful and was a fitting tribute to the dead newsboy.

parencies and two or three red flags were visible in the gathering. Addresses were made by George Winter of the Cigarmakers' Union 44, Fred Haller of New York and by Max Stochr and Joseph Reif-graeber. The last two named spoke in German. The general tenor of the remarks was to the effect that recent inventions in laborsaving machinery had made a reduction of the hours of labor necessary to an equalization. The politicians and law-makers had been petitioned, and had neglected to remedy the matter. It now devolved upon the workingment to bring about the reform by peaceable agitating that the eight-hour movement was the first in the future to commemorate the inauguration of the movement.

SUNDAY MEETINGS.

Yestarday was a busy one with organized labor. Meetings were held at almost every hall where labor lodges have a sitting. The Central and higher unions were also in session preparing for the anticipated action of the subordinate lodges.

The Progressive Carpenters applied, but were advised to join the regular union of the trade. A committee was appointed to investigate the difficulty between the Progressive and the International Unions of Cigar-makers. A representative of the Knights of Labor from Assembly 3517 was present, and asked if there would be any obstacle to representatives of the Knights being received as delegates to the Central Union. The matter was referred.

About 1,500 members of the various building trades representing carpenters, bricklayers, plasterers, etc., were in attendance. The bricklayers and expenders representing target and the eighthour movement seemed to be a decided success as far as the expressions indicated. The bricklayers and carpenters reported the time conceded without any reduction of pay. Where any exception to this result appeared it was simply from a delay in the negotiations with the bosses.

THE REMOVAL OF THE DEPOT OF INDIAN SUPPLIES TO ST. LOUIS.

ockrell's Bill on Imports to In Ports Approved - Southern Floods and Washouts - The Stock and Bond Call -Looseness of Toledo Grain Inspection -

R. D. Lancaster, P. M. Nicholson and E. C. B. D. Lancaster, P. M. Nicholson and E. C. Simmons, a committee appointed by President Cobb to consider Senate bill 1877, introduced in the Senate by Hon. F. M. Cockrell, submitted a report to a meeting of the Board of Directors at 1 o'clock to-day. The report unqualifiedly favors the bill of Senator Cockrell as one likely to remove many unpleasant and unjust re-strictions on the import commerce of in-terior ports. The bill, the report says, tends to promote and enlarge the facilities of importers at interior cities in the transact tion of business with foreign countries. It abolishes discriminations against explosive articles and articles in bulk; it abolishes any limitation of time in which the formalities of entry must be made and various other disc inations, and will afford great relief to mer-chants, tourists and immigrants. The report of the committee was accepted and the in-dorsement of the bill by the Board of Trade will be sent to Washington.

one of the most important subjects for the consideration of St. Louis merchants and one which calls for active effort is the proposed removal of the deput of supplies for the Indian service from New York to St. Louis and a meeting of merchants and all'interested in this matter has been called by Presidents. W. Cobb of the Exchange for to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clook, but was postponed to-day. The deput of supplies is worth a matter of some $5,000,000 a year to any city where it is situated; that is, the volume of business transacted by it amounts to this much and draws this much trade to the city. There is no reason that St. Louis should not possess the deput, because as a matter of fact it is the natural distributing point to all the sub deputs and agencies in the indian nation and throughout the West. The only thing required is an effort to get it, and this meeting is called so that all necessary steps may be taken to this end. The particular object of the meeting as stated jin the notice is the consideration of the desirability of the local merchants making bids for the supplies at the present time. It is thought that one argument which will be brought against the removal of the depot to this point will be that the merchants are desired to interest themselves. The bids for this season have all been referred to New York, and hence the depot cannot be removed until next autumn. The matter is entirely in the hands of the Secretary of the interior, and it is stated on excellent authority that the chances for this city are extremely good for securing the depot if the proper action be taken.

A Sad Case of Poisoning

A Sad Case of Poisoning is that of any man or woman afflicted with disease or derangement of the liver, resulting in poisonous accumulations in the blood, scrofulous affections, sick headaches, and diseases of the kidneys, lungs or heart. These troubles can be cured only by going to the primary cause and putting the liver in a healthy condition. To accomplish this result speedily and effectually nothing has proved itself so efficacions as Dr. Plerce's "Golden Medical Discovery," which has never falled to do the work claimed for it, and never will.
